Rules of Scrabulous

Scrabulous is easy! You can practice a few games to get the hang of it.

Some of the rules of Scrabulous online are:

- If you run out of time, you lose the game regardless of the scores. If this is not done, some users may let the time run out on purpose after getting a small lead.
- When your opponent quits a game, you get the win as well as the points. For more info, check out the automatic adjudication system. If you play with a certified non-quitter (those with a star mark), you can be sure they won't quit.
- Resigning is not the same as quitting a game. When a user resigns, they are accepting defeat, the game is not stored, and you get the win and points instantly.
- Consulting dictionaries is allowed except when you are playing a challenge type game where users are allowed to play phony words. Please note that we do not edit the lists and are not responsible for the words included in the dictionaries.
- Word builders are strictly prohibited. While we cannot prevent users from cheating, if a player is repeatedly reported against, their account may be blocked.
- Users who abuse in the lobby, the players, or make racist remarks are permanently blocked. At Scrabulous you can be sure of having a very pleasant gaming experience every time. To report abusive action, please contact us.

Scrabulous Dictionaries

When you play a game of Scrabulous, you have the option of either using the SOWPODS dictionary or the TWL dictionary. Both are highly popular word lists used by millions of players across the world and even in official tournaments.

Important : Please read the information below carefully

- We do not edit the word list. Whatever words are there in the SOWPODS or the TWL dictionary, have been selected by officials who are not connected to Scrabulous.

- Please do not ask us why a certain word is there and why a certain word is not. For example, we cannot comment on why ZEN is invalid. Please contact an association near you to find out.

- You may use the SOWPODS or the TWL dictionary to look up words during a game. However, you should not use the dictionary when playing a challenge type game where you have the option of playing phoney words.

- The word lists are available for free and may be downloaded by anyone. Click on one of the dictionary links above to download the entire word list. Whenever the word lists are officially updated, we shall make changes as well. Check out this Wikipedia article for information on who maintains and updates the dictionaries.
